PRODUITS OU MACHINES

Our machines and system solutions

You expect passion, outstanding technology and quality.
Our machines consist of these components.

The dedication to glass. And that for more than 60 years. Because, a machine is more than the sum of its parts, although we are responsible for putting all the parts together.

Our quality expectations rest on our enduring passion for achieving the best possible quality for you and making constant improvements. Our design department regularly develops new innovations and technologies. It means that we can satisfy every individual customer needs.
View our machines from a new angle and understand our technologies.
